North Kohala Pinzgauer Adventure - Kohala Wai

Combine incredible natural beauty with a one-of-a-kind 6-wheeled vehicle and you have the best off-road adventure in Hawaii! Leave the trappings of the modern world behind and join us as we explore the remote Pololu Valley on the northern tip of the Big Island. Climb aboard the 6x6 Pinzgauer Scrambler and witness the life-giving and land-sculpting power of water. We'll ramble through a changing landscape of rushing streams, towering ocean cliffs, cascading waterfalls and lush green forest, before slowing the pace and exploring the area by foot. Kick off your shoes and take a dip in a cool mountain pool or simply relax and enjoy the breathtaking coastal and valley vistas. Round Trip transfers, beverages and snacks are served including bottled water. Rain jackets provided if needed.

Tour Dates offered: Saturday, October 18, 2008 and Sunday, October 19, 2008

1.5 hour Horseback Ranch Ride

1.5 hour Ranch Ride. Head 'em up at the Ranch Range Station! Viewing the Big Island's lush ranching countryside! Owned and operated by a 3rd generation native Hawaiian Paniolo (Cowboy). Kick your heels up, whoop and holler as you ride your trusty steed through God's country. Mingle with range cattle, sheep, ranch horses and foals. The 3000ft elevation is something to behold even if you have no riding experience or if you are the most experienced horseman. Experience the true freedom on this "open range" family ride on the emerald green foothills of Mauna Kea with the beautiful backdrop of Waipio valley! Spread out, trot, canter on lush hills through cattle and horses! Experienced horseman and Hawaii State Rodeo competitors serve as your wranglers. They share information on the Paniolo History, ranching and riding tips. This ride is the epitome of "open Range" riding. NO trails and NO nose to tail riding. Nothing but the best American Quarter Horses, all bred, trained and owned by the Ranch. At your own pace, this educational cowboy experience will be a great experience.

Tour Date offered: Monday, October 20, 2008 only.

Kilauea Volcano Adventure

Here's your chance to experience the magic of Pele's creations at the Hawaii Volcanoes National Park. You'll really get an idea of how big the Big Island is during the course of this tour. And you'll appreciate that someone else is doing the driving. Starting out from our headquarters in Kona, you will travel up the coast over desolate lava flows for about a half hour before proceeding up the rolling pasturelands on the flanks of Mauna Kea. Taking the road that traverses the island between Mauna Loa and Mauna Kea, you'll see a dramatic and diverse landscape of ranchland, sub-alpine dry forest and rainforest. By the end of the day, you'll have traveled over 300 miles and experienced an elevation change of over 30,000 feet.
