

BY JOE JACKSON, PMPA

INDUSTRY	NAICS	ANNUAL SALES
Small Arms, Ordnance, and Ordnance Accessories Manufacturing	332994	$6,501,921,000

The precise, advanced, and high-quality parts necessary for the small arms, ordnance, and ordnance accessories manufacturing industry are predominantly produced by our industry by using precision turning technology.

TOP 5 COMPANIES

- 1 Vista Outdoor Operations, LLC, MN
- 2 Sturm Ruger & Co. Inc., CT
- 3 Axon Enterprise Inc., AZ
- 4 Sig Sauer Inc., NH
- 5 Cold Defence LLC, CT

3x The precision machining industry sales are more than three times that of the small arms, ordnance, and ordnance accessories manufacturing industry.

34% The small arms, ordnance, and ordnance accessories manufacturing industry is concentrated. Of the 285 companies verified in this specific NAICS Code, the top 5 companies make up of 34% sales in this industry.

The small arms, ordnance, and ordnance accessories manufacturing industry spends $2.5 billion on materials, components, supplies, minerals and machinery, comparable to the rate of precision machining industry.

$2.5B

Essential

The parts that our precision machining shops manufacture provide reliable and essential functionality to the accuracy, precision, and functionality to the products of the small arms, ordnance, and ordnance accessories manufacturing industry.

The small arms, ordnance, and ordnance accessories manufacturing industry is also geographically concentrated. Two of the top five companies in this NAICS code are in Connecticut.

Source: U.S. Census, NAICS.com